Important Warnings:

- Volatility Risk: Cryptocurrencies may exhibit high volatility. Values can change suddenly, which may lead to potential losses.
- Technological Risks: The infrastructures supporting cryptocurrencies may sometimes face attacks, errors, or interruptions, potentially causing loss of value.
- Liquidity Risk: Some cryptocurrencies may have low liquidity, making buying and selling difficult.

Before investing in cryptocurrencies, it is important for each investor to conduct comprehensive research while considering their individual risk tolerance and investment goals.
